Dear Friend,

Creative Theatre - Muddy Water Players is a non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting the performing arts in Orange County. The company operates The Playhouse at Museum Village in Monroe, N.Y., presenting a season of Main Stage performances from May to September along with workshops and readings.

For the last 19 years, our company has been presenting a season of comedies, mysteries, dramas and musicals at The Playhouse at Museum Village. Each production typically runs for 10 performances over three weekends. In the course of an entire season, over 2600 people attend our shows.

This year, we will present:

The Arthur Miller classic, “The Crucible” from May 1 to 17

The comedy/farce, “Vanya & Sonia & Masha & Spike” from July 10 to 26

The popular Broadway musical, “Thoroughly Modern Millie” from Sept. 11 – 27

Please help us meet our rising costs by advertising your business with us. We are requesting that you and your business/organization consider supporting our organization by taking out an ad in our season’s program. Ads come in all shapes and sizes and begin at just a low, tax deductible $75. We know our audiences must be taking their programs home with them because very few are left in The Playhouse at night – and that’s good news for any advertiser.
